

Student Excellence Ceremony 2011

Advisor of the Year Award

The Office of Student Life is proud to present the Annual National-Louis University Leadership Awards.

This awards program is a special effort by the University to recognize student leadership, service to the campus community and the growing development of civic engagement on our campus.

The Application Process

The application process is simple – it's a one page information sheet and, on average, 3 short answer questions. For each award, a variety of criteria determine eligibility – please see the application page for the specific criteria.

Applications are available online at <http://www.nl.edu/StudentServices/studentaffairs/studentlife/student-awards-ceremony.cfm> or at the front desks of the Office of Student Affairs.

Nominate Your Organization Advisor

Any member of a student organization can nominate their advisor. Other faculty, staff and students can also nominate an organization advisor who they have seen go above and beyond. Please complete as much of the "Nominee Information" as you can, as well as the "Nominator Information" section.

Return the completed application by May 2 to maria.meintanis@nl.edu, fax to (312) 261-3092, or mail to Maria Meintanis, Director of Student Life, 122 S. Michigan Ave, Chicago, IL 60603

The Selection Process

The award selection committee is being chaired by the Director of Student Life. The committee consists of students, faculty and staff.

Selections will be made the week after applications are due. All nominees are invited to the Student Awards Ceremony on May 14 on the North Shore campus at 1:00pm.
