

I GOT IT AT NLU

“ The learning experience was convenient because it was real life. It was that all of the instructors are like us. They work full-time.

The ways they could relate the material was real life, and it was real-life application. We could walk home that very night, go to work the next day, and be applying the principles we learned to our jobs, you know, nine to five. So it was very applicable. ”

National-Louis University
www.nl.edu

Tina Saunders
B.S. in Management