

Center for Teaching Through Children's Books

National Louis University
presents

INDIVISIBLE 10 Years Later CONVERSATIONS IN SOCIAL JUSTICE: Teaching through Literature for Children and Adolescents Saturday, October 14th, 2017, 8:30am to 3:00pm

Featuring key conversations with

Kwame Alexander
and
Cornelius Minor

Panel discussions with

Edi Campbell
Sarah Park Dahlen
Laura Jiménez

and

Closing conversations with
Jane Fleming

Lunch Sessions • Breakout Sessions • Discussion • Q&A

In partnership with SCIRA, SCBWI, and the Pajeau Foundation and with the kind support of

Teaching Tolerance/The Southern Poverty Law Center, The Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center, and Teaching for Change

The institute is $100.00 per person (includes registration fee, coffee and lunch), with a special registration fee available for groups of 5 or more. Professional Development clock hours will be available at no additional cost. A limited number of scholarships available for those with financial need.

To download registration form go to cttcb.org/indivisibleregistration.

National Louis University North Shore Campus, Public Forum Room, 3rd floor
5202 Old Orchard Road (North Tower), Skokie IL 60077

Questions? E-mail the CTCB at CTCB@nl.edu.

Junko Yokota, Director & Toby Rajput, Librarian

The Center for Teaching through Children's Books is dedicated to excellence in teaching with quality children's literature.

Thank you for respecting our scent-free environment.