Course #	Course Title	Sem. Hours	CRN	Term/Year
RLL 595 AM	Special Topics/Literacy/ Indivisible: Teaching for Social Justice Through Diverse Youth Literature	1	91126	Fall 2017

Course Description:

This course focuses on teaching the concepts of peace and social justice through the use of high quality diverse literature for children and adolescents. It builds on participants' prior knowledge of children's literature and of literacy teaching, and incorporates the ideals supporting the teaching of peace and social justice to deepen teachers, administrators and NCE candidates' understandings in these areas. Candidates will attend a professional literacy conference on October 14, 2017 hosted by the Center for Teaching through Children's Books, as well as read, reflect, and dialogue about professional articles and materials, and instructional materials.

NOTES:

- Conference Registration is a separate process and fee, but is required for course completion.
- This conference meets Saturday, October 14, 2017 7:30 am – 3:00 pm, and students are expected to stay after an additional hour to meet with the course instructor from 3:15 - 4:30 pm. The remainder of the course is online.
