DISTRICT’S ROLE

The district superintendent or authorized agency representative may nominate one or more individuals for teacher leader training courses. Strong candidates ensure program success. Final approval of candidates selected for teacher leader training will be made by district personnel in consultation with the trainer at NLU’s Reading Recovery Center for Literacy.

The primary responsibilities of Reading Recovery/ Literacy Lessons/ Descubriendo la Lectura (DLL) teacher leaders are to work with students, train and coach teachers, provide continuing professional development and support for teachers, monitor the progress of children, support the development of school teams, disseminate information, and participate in Reading Recovery regional and national professional networks.

The teacher leader works closely with district administrators to achieve effective implementation, operation, and evaluation. Administrators are cautioned against stretching the roles of the Reading Recovery/DLL teacher leader beyond their training expertise and beyond their capacity to continue to perform their primary role successfully.

As a participant in the Reading Recovery and DLL Program at National Louis University, the applicant agrees to fulfill the following responsibilities.

Teaching Materials
To maintain quality teaching and results, Reading Recovery teachers and teacher leaders are required to use certain materials and supplies including RRCNA approved leveled book sets.

Following Years 2+

- School districts budget for the teacher leader’s travel and expenses to the annual teacher leader Institute, one Reading Recovery Conference and teacher leader professional development (6-8 days) provided by NLU.
- Budget for annual affiliation site fee ($2,800 per teacher leader) paid to NLU due by September 30.
- In Year 2, new school districts budget for two 2-day visits by an NLU trainer (estimated costs are $1000 per visit plus travel expenses). Occasionally, one or two trainer visits for continued consultation will be necessary in Year 3.

The signature of the superintendent, or other responsible administrator, on the application indicates an understanding and acceptance of these commitments.

Teacher Leader Candidates

- Hold a master’s degree in education and teacher certification.
- Show evidence of successful teaching experience.
- Show evidence of successful teaching experience in a bilingual setting if a DLL candidate.
- Be nominated by an administrative agency making a Reading Recovery/DLL application or by an established or new site.
- Have an employment commitment to serve as a Reading Recovery/DLL teacher leader following the completion of training with the agency making application.
- Have at least 5 years teaching experience, preferably with at least 3 years with primary-age children.
- Show evidence of leadership and show competence in working with colleagues and administrators.
- Commit to a minimum of 3 years service to the site.
Training as a teacher leader requires participation over an academic year of course work through NLU Reading Recovery Center. It also requires training a class of teachers during the second year. Candidates teach children in their home district and commute to the training site for classes as scheduled. School districts release candidate from duties other than the ½ day teaching of Reading Recovery children during the training year. The major components of the training:

- academic course work
- teaching children
- leadership and program implementation, including practicum leading teachers in-training

A Descubriendo la Lectura (DLL) teacher leader will participate in a bridging course through Texas Women’s University following the training year at NLU.

YEAR ONE
Coursework and Professional Development
- Attend scheduled class sessions and seminars in person and via video conferencing technology (Teaching practicum, leadership, theory).
- Successfully meet all requirements for completely teacher leader courses as prescribed by syllabi.
- Teach a child behind the glass a minimum of three times during the training year.
- Attend an annual RRCNA-approved Reading Recovery conference (Chicago & Columbus)
- Attend Teacher Leader Summer Institute.

Teaching Children
- Teach Reading Recovery children individually in a school setting throughout the school year serving at least 8 children over the year (4 Tutoring Slots each ½ day)
- Demonstrate effective teaching of Reading Recovery children and responsiveness to coaching feedback.
- Keep complete records on each child as a basis for instruction.
- Receive school visits from university trainer.
- Communicate with parents, first-grade teachers, and other school personnel throughout the year.
- Submit data to the university trainer as required.

Leadership
Teacher leaders-in-training participate in structured field experiences planned by the university training center. Beginning with observation, the trainee gradually begins to practice the role of teacher leader under the guidance of experienced teacher leaders and the university training center.

- Attend scheduled training classes, observe and participate in all aspects of training class.
- Conduct colleague visits with teacher leaders-in-training.
- Make school visits to Reading Recovery/DLL teachers, initially with a teacher leader and then independently.
- Visit other Reading Recovery or DLL sites to gain insight regarding variety of settings and approaches.
- Observe continuing contact sessions conducted by a teacher leader.
- Observe Reading Recovery/DLL related activities in school districts.
- Participate in research and evaluation.

Prepare for Site Implementation
- Work with the site coordinator/school leadership team to plan and initiate activities related to the implementation of Reading Recovery/DLL/LL at the site (e.g., ordering materials, developing a budget, developing the training facility).
- Communicate with appropriate personnel to develop awareness of Reading Recovery/DLL.
- Assist the site coordinator in planning and providing an appropriate facility for teacher training and clerical support.
- Assist in the identification of appropriate teachers for the training class.
REQUIREMENTS OF TEACHER LEADERS-IN-TRAINING

YEAR TWO AND BEYOND
Reading Recovery and DLL teacher leaders maintain registered status through affiliation with the university training center and continued employment in the role of teacher leader in a registered site, including at a minimum: teaching at least two children, monitoring teacher and student progress, conducting continuing sessions for teachers, and participating in leadership professional development activities. Registered status is considered lapsed if a person is absent from employment as a Reading Recovery or DLL teacher leader for more than 1 year. Re-registration can be established by completing training activities developed by the university training center.

Teaching Children
- Teach four Reading Recovery, DLL and/or Literacy Lesson™ children daily during the field year.
- Continue to teach children in subsequent years. Depending upon advice of the university training center, a teacher leader may gradually reduce teaching during subsequent years to a minimum of two children daily.
- Teach a minimum of one child in English and one child in Spanish in subsequent years in order to maintain registration in both Reading Recovery and DLL.

Training Teachers
- Teach a training class of 8–12 Reading Recovery, DLL and/or Literacy Lessons teachers during the field year and in subsequent years as needed.
- Conduct assessment training (including practice with children) for a minimum of 24 hours.
- Serve as adjunct faculty member in the university granting credit; develop and follow a course syllabus which includes content and up to date training materials to comply with university guidelines.
- Visit teachers-in-training at least four to six times during the year to provide guidance and instructional coaching.
- Monitor the selection and progress of children.
- Provide trained teachers with at least six continuing professional development sessions each year.
- Visit trained Reading Recovery/ DLL/ Literacy Lessons teachers* at least once each year to ensure quality control of the program, with additional visits based on need or request.
- During the second year, the teacher leader should teach only one training class.

Research
- Collect entry, exit, and end-of-year data on Reading Recovery, DLL and/or Literacy Lessons children using NDEC approved format, procedures, and materials.
- Prepare an annual site report and submit it to the affiliated university training center.
- Assist teachers and principals in preparing annual school reports.

Project Implementation and Site Maintenance
- Maintain the RRCNA standards for establishment and operation of a site, including the selection of the lowest-achieving children for service first.
- Maintain affiliation with the university training center.
- Serve as a specialist to support Reading Recovery/DLL/Literacy Lessons teachers* in their work with challenging children.
- Work with the site coordinator and administrators for a quality implementation at the site and school levels with the goal of full coverage.
- Inform appropriate groups about Reading Recovery/DLL/Literacy Lessons.
- Assist in recruiting and identifying appropriate teachers for the training class.
- Meet all RRCNA standards.

Professional Development
- Participate in professional development opportunities for Reading Recovery/DLL teacher leaders sponsored by the university training center.
- Receive consultation visits from a trainer.
- Subsequent annual or periodic visits are provided as necessary.
- Attend the annual Teacher Leader Summer Institute.
- Attend an approved RRCNA Reading Recovery/DLL conference each year.

*Literacy Lessons teachers are ESL or Special Education Licensed
Literacy Lessons is a professional development initiative that builds on the strong theoretical base and well-researched protocols of Reading Recovery in order to reach a wider group of children with special needs beyond first grade.
