What does the NLU college experience look like?

AFFORDABLE
- Tuition is $10,260 per academic year, making NLU the most affordable bachelor’s degree in Illinois.
- Potential grants may further reduce costs, so you can graduate with little or no debt.
- Financial aid and financing alternatives available to fit your budget, including options for undocumented students and DREAMers.
- Admission Requirements: 2.0 GPA, less than 30 quarter hours or 20 semester hours of college credit.

SUPPORTIVE
- Upon your acceptance and enrollment, you’ll be partnered with a Student Success Coach who will support and guide you from a personal, academic, and career perspective.
- Coursework mixes the best of face-to-face learning and online flexibility. Classes meet two days a week at NLU’s Chicago or Wheeling campuses, with the remainder of the coursework completed online leaving you the opportunity to work while enrolled in college.

PROFESSIONAL
- Courses are packaged, in just the right order, to lead to the bachelor’s degree that matches your interests.
- In your first two years of courses, you’ll follow a pathway in General Studies, Education or Business. Then, in your second two years, your courses become more specialized as you focus on your major.
- Career Services will prepare you for, and connect you to, a professional path during school and after you graduate.

BACHELOR DEGREE OPTIONS

APPLIED COMMUNICATIONS: Learn from industry experts that have developed the real-world skills you’ll need to succeed in professions such as Corporate Communications, Public Relations, Advertising, or Journalism.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION: Build your business knowledge about each functional area of business ranging from; Marketing, Accounting, and Human Resources, Communication, Data Analytics and Strategic Management.

COMPUTER SCIENCES AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS (CSIS): Learn how technology works and how it can transform a workplace. Students interested in programming for application or web development, networking and information security, analytics, information systems, and integrated fields such as business and management, will benefit from this program.

HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT (KENDALL): Develop your already good people skills and advance your strong leadership skills. Learn how to evaluate key details and gain the skills need for revenue management, sales, marketing and guest experience.

HUMAN SERVICES: If you love the idea of working directly with people, consider NLU’s B.A. in Human Services degree. You’ll train to be a successful employee in organizations that provide support, service, and other general social work-related activities for individuals, families, and communities in need.

PSYCHOLOGY: Grow in your knowledge of psychological concepts, theories and more. The coursework provides a great foundation for working in community or business settings as well as graduate study.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE: Equip you to work in fields addressing the effects of criminality on individuals, communities, and society. With majors in Criminal Justice Administration or Forensic Social Justice, this degree prepares graduates to serve in; the law enforcement, courts, corrections systems, or to work in related private industries.

EARLY CHILDHOOD PRACTICE (NON-LICENSURE): Designed to help students work with children in child care centers or settings that do not require state licensure.  Does not require ACT/SAT Scores

Please note, students must complete the testing requirements for the Illinois State Board of Education before becoming licensed to teach in the state of Illinois. Therefore, for the following majors, a minimum incoming ACT composite score of 19 or SAT of 1000 is recommended. Students who have not yet achieved an ACT score of 22 or SAT score of 1110 must commit to required ACT/SAT/TAP preparation during their freshman/sophomore year to maximize the likelihood of meeting Education licensure major requirements.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION: Intended for students who want to teach children from birth to 2nd grade.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION: Designed for those who want to teach 1st to sixth grade.

PART G • ADMISSION POLICY

Procedures and requirements are specific to each program. Admission to study in one program does not ensure admission to all programs. The decision to deny admission cannot be appealed. It is your responsibility to be aware of the policies and requirements of National Louis University as stated in the University catalog. National Louis University reserves the right to change any provision or requirement, including fees, at any time, with or without notice.

National Louis University admits students to all programs and activities and administers all educational, employment, and other policies without discrimination because of race, color, age, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, disability, military status or marital status.

It is expected by the University that all information which is material to the admissions process be accurate and true to the best of the student’s or prospective student’s knowledge. Any individual found to have submitted fraudulent, incorrect, plagiarized, or misleading information is subject to denial of admission to, or dismissal from the University.

I certify that the information given on this application is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge, and that I have attended no institutions other than those listed. I understand that I am responsible for arranging the forwarding of official transcripts of records from schools I have attended, and that such transcripts become the property of the University and will not be returned to me. I also give my permission to National Louis University to verify my educational records with the institutions I have attended.

If a University faculty or staff member discovers that this policy has been violated by an applicant for admission, that applicant shall be denied admission by the Director of Admissions.
