WRITTEN STATEMENT

Responses to the following questions must be completed and typed, single spaced, if possible. Please attach your typed responses. Responses to each question must not exceed one full page. The written statement is important in the evaluation of your application. In addition to considering the content of your statements, the faculty will evaluate your ability to express your ideas in written communication. Grammar, spelling and other writing mechanics are important here. At least as important as how you frame your ideas, the depth of your discussion of the influences on your thinking, and the reading and experiences that inform your responses to these questions. Written Statements may also be emailed as a word or real text attachment to admissions@nl.edu.

QUESTIONS FOR APPLICANTS TO ALL PROGRAMS

1. What are your professional goals and how do you envision doctoral experiences supporting and/or relevant to achieving those goals?
2. What previous professional and personal experiences encouraged you to apply to this doctoral program?
3. Please explain what readings, academic studies or specific ideas have contributed to your current understandings as a professional.
4. How do you strive to enact these understandings in your professional work?

ADDITIONAL QUESTION FOR SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY

What philosophical beliefs have you developed about teaching, learning, human development, change and leadership and how do you strive to enact these in your professional work?

ADMISSION POLICY

Procedures and requirements are specific to each program. Admission to study in one program does not ensure admission to all programs. The decision to deny admission cannot be appealed. It is your responsibility to be aware of the policies and requirements of National Louis University as stated in the University catalog. National Louis University reserves the right to change any provision or requirement, including fees, at any time, with or without notice.

National Louis University admits students to all programs and activities and administers all educational, employment, and other policies without discrimination because of race, color, age, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, disability, military status or marital status.

It is expected by the University that all information which is material to the admissions process be accurate and true to the best of the student's or prospective student's knowledge. Any individual found to have submitted fraudulent, incorrect, plagiarized, or misleading information is subject to denial of admission to, or dismissal from the University.

I certify that the information given on this application is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge, and that I have attended no institutions other than those listed. I understand that I am responsible for arranging the forwarding of official transcripts of records from schools I have attended, and that such transcripts become the property of the University and will not be returned to me. I also give my permission to National Louis University to verify my educational records with the institutions I have attended.

If a University faculty or staff member discovers that this policy has been violated by an applicant for admission, that applicant shall be denied admission by the Director of Admissions.
